The Mundaring Weir Gallery has been displaying the art and craft of talented Hills people for over 30 years. Operating as a co-operative, the Gallery offers a wide variety of Western Australian products, including paintings, woodwork, handcrafts of all sorts, books, and an antiques and collectibles corner.

The Gallery is happy to welcome new members, so if you or someone you know is an artist or craftsman in any medium, please consider joining this long-established showcase of Hills talent.
